SUBJECT: Week of 7-14 August 1956

1. Basic Supervision. Basic Supervision #22, an extra presentation of the course, ended on Friday, 10 August. This was the run of Basic Supervision geared particularly for the senior analyst or technician with responsibility for substantive as well as supervisory duties. Three of the 16 members were outside of DDI—one from FE/PP, one from Security, one from Commo—and the rest represented the DDI offices as follows: 3 from OCI, 2 from OSI, 3 from ORR, 3 from OO/FDD, 2 from OCR. We suggested that one man from OSI who was able to attend only 2 days during the first week drop the course and return another time.

2. Personnel. Career plans have been prepared for the 3 members of the Management Training staff who are OTR designees.
